Please respond to the following questions:

1. What are the strengths of this intern?

Listened very well. The class struggled with the afternoon consultant who often didn't seem to understand our questions. Brandon did or would continue clarifying until he did and was a tremendous help. Other strengths: patient, very encouraging even when providing critiques, clear communicator, and he does an excellent job at breaking down the topics he was teaching in way that made them simpler to understand AND remember.

2. What are the areas of improvement for this intern?

I honestly don't have any. All of the interactions I had with him and the sessions he taught were excellent. If he had been the instructor for the full course I might have some feedback for improvement.

3. Do you feel that this intern helped you to develop as a counselor? If so, how? If not, how could they have contributed more to your development as a counselor?

Absolutely. As I stated in answer 1 Brandon was very conscious of ensuring he understood us when we had questions. This helped clarify several things that I had been confused on. Additionally, he pushed and challenged us during the practice sessions, but did so in a way that in my experience didn't make me feel like I was a failure. Afterwards I felt like I had just experienced a great learning opportunity and was inspired to keep pushing to learn more.
